Southern California Public Power Authority (SCPPA)

Ted Beatty
Director of Resource and Program Development

The Business of Local Energy Symposium
May 5, 2017
What is SCPPA?

- Joint Powers Authority (JPA) formed in 1980
- Located in Glendora, CA
- Serves 12 Public Utility Members
- Over 2 million customers
- Member peak load >9200 MW

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SCPPA Public Utility Members</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Anaheim</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cerritos</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pasadena</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
SCPPA Activities

- Utility Aggregation
  - Share Risks
  - Increases Efficiency
  - Reduce Costs

- Cafeteria Style “Opt In”

- SCPPA Facilitates Member Needs:
  - Develops Projects, Programs and Services
  - Manages Owned and Contracted Resources
  - Regulatory/Legislative Engagement
  - Coordinates Issues through Utility Working Groups
  - Training

- Associate Members