

Addressing Community Needs in Challenging Times

Don Bray

Director, Account Services and Community Relations

July 2020

Silicon Valley Clean Energy

Mission: reduce dependence on fossil fuels by providing clean, affordable and reliable electricity, and innovative local programs

Campbell | Cupertino | Gilroy | Los Altos | Los Altos Hills | Los Gatos | Monte Sereno

Milpitas | Mountain View | Morgan Hill | Santa Clara County | Saratoga | Sunnyvale

Community & Industry Impact

270,000+ homes and businesses receiving carbon-free electricity

$55+ million in customer savings since SVCE's start

19.8% reduction in overall community emissions

$6+ million annually to local electrification programs

$1+ billion commitment to new renewables

Providing Impact Moving Forward

Seeking to Balance Multiple Goals in Light of COVID

Programs in Response to COVID-19:
Customer
Relief &
Community
Resilience

$10 Million for Customer Relief & Community Resilience Programs

The programs include direct support for:

- Income-qualified CARE/FERA customers
- Local small businesses
- Contractor workforce through online electrification training
- Member communities through energy resilience projects

Program Outline

Program		Estimated $
Customer Relief	1a) $100 bill credit to all residential CARE/FERA customers	$2.5 million
	1b) $250 bill credit to qualifying and responding small business customers	$1.0 million
Workforce Relief	2a) Workforce Electrification Training with $500 stipend	$1.0 million
	2b) Workforce Home Electrification Installation	$0.5 million
Community Resiliency	3a) Resiliency Infrastructure Planning Support	$1.0 million
	3b) Resiliency Infrastructure Capital Project Support	$4.0 million

1a) Residential Bill Credits: $2.5 Million

- $100 Bill Credit for Residential CARE/FERA customers
 - Over 24,000 customer accounts currently with CARE/FERA
 - Increments of $50 on-bill credits, automatically applied for June & July statements

1b) Small Business Bill Credits: $1 Million

- $250 Bill Credit for Small Business commercial accounts
 - 4,000 credits to businesses who qualify and apply
 - Letters sent to 10,000+ customers

2a) Workforce Relief

Contractor Training: $1.5 Million

- Provide $500 relief stipend to licensed contractors, apprentices & journeymen upon completion of training
 - Five self-paced online courses focused on building electrification technologies
 - Delivered through local community college platform

2b) Workforce Relief Installation Incentives: $0.5 Million

- Allow participants in the training to apply electrification knowledge
 - Up to $3,000 incentive for installation of batteries, heat pump water heaters or heat pump furnace
 - Installation at their residence or workplace

3a) Community Resilience Regional Planning & Technical Assistance: $1 Million

- Regional tools to aid communities in the planning and technical aspects of resilience projects
 - SVCE to provide centralized contracting for partners providing assistance and planning
 - Funding distributed based on load allocation of member agencies

3b) Community Resilience Capital Support: $4 Million

- Local grants for shovel-ready resilience projects
 - Projects can include energy storage, micro-batteries, capacity etc.
 - Funding distributed based on load allocation of member agencies

Questions?

