

Community Choice Energy Explained

What is community choice energy?

A local program that buys and can generate electricity for businesses and residents

How community choice energy works

Hybrid between existing energy models

Investor-Owned Utility

Community Choice Energy

Public Utility (LADWP, SMUD, etc.)

PG&E Electric bill

Charges

01/01/2010 - 02/02/2010

Electric Charges

$16.63

Baseline Quantity

323.40000 Kwh

Baseline Usage

140.00000 Kwh @ $0.11877

Net Charges

$16.63

The net charges shown above include the following component(s).
Please see definitions on Page 2 of the bill.

Generation – Central Valley Energy Choice

3.00

Transmission

1.36

Distribution

5.21

Public Purpose Programs

1.73

Nuclear Decommissioning

0.04

DWR Bond Charge

0.72

Ongoing CTC

0.78

Energy Cost Recovery Amount

0.52

Taxes and Other

Energy Commission Tax

$0.03

ClimateSmart Amount ($0.00254 / Kwh)

0.36

TOTAL CHARGES

$17.02

A Growing Movement

About half the state's population has or is developing Community Choice Energy.

Our interactive map is at cleanpowerexchange.org

What are the benefits of Community Choice Energy?

-  Community-tailored programs
-  Competitive, more stable rates
-  Local control/transparency
-  Local economic benefits/jobs
-  Improved air quality/energy resilience

What CCAs are doing to help businesses save money

- Higher rates for Net Energy Metering
- Cost incentives for solar and battery back-up installation
- Cost incentives for electrifying transportation

CCAs & COVID-19

Millions of dollars to COVID-19
relief efforts

Grants for CBO's

Rate discounts

Job training programs

~$100 Million

Rough estimate of the amount that leaves the Stockton economy every year, and that would be redirected to local control with a Community Choice agency

Status of CCA in Stockton

Stockton City Council Votes
Unanimously to Pursue Community
Choice Energy

Timeline:

- Tech study initiated - September 2020
- Tech study completion - Mid-January 2021
- City Council vote - March 2021 (earliest)

Follow us on social media

Community Choice Energy for Stockton

@Climateadvocat4

Davis Harper

he/him/his

San Joaquin County Organizer

DAVIS@THECLIMATECENTER.ORG